

ARTICLE APPEARED
ON PAGE A-12

NEW YORK TIMES
3 June 1984

C.I.A. Denies Any Part In Wounding Pastora

Special to The New York Times

WASHINGTON, June 2 — The Central Intelligence Agency today denied any involvement in the bomb explosion Wednesday night that wounded Edén Pastora Gómez, the Nicaraguan rebel leader, and killed several others, including two journalists.

On Friday, as he was leaving Costa Rica for a hospital in Venezuela, Mr. Pastora blamed the C.I.A. for the blast, asserting that the agency was upset that he would not join forces with other anti-Sandinista groups, in particular the Honduras-based Nicaraguan Democratic Force.

A C.I.A. spokesman, Dale Peterson, said of the assertion today: "Absolutely untrue. Ridiculous. Unfounded. Use any word you want. We don't assassinate people. We don't plant bombs and blow people up. There's an executive order that prohibits us from that."

On Friday the United States Ambassador in Costa Rica, Curtin Winsor, also denied any C.I.A. involvement and said he thought the Sandinistas were behind the bombing. "The C.I.A. doesn't do this kind of thing," he said.